APPLICABLE EXEMPTION CIRCLED BELOW

- ☐ 1. Information specifically prohibited from disclosure by State or Federal law, or rules and regulations implementing State or Federal law. FOIA Sec. 7(1)(a).
- ☐ 2. Private Information – means unique identifiers including a person's social security number, driver's license number, employee identification number, biometric identifiers, personal financial information, passwords or other access codes, medical records, home or personal phone numbers, and personal e-mail addresses. Private information also includes home address and personal license plates, except as otherwise provided by law or when compiled without possibility of attribution to any person. FOIA Sec. 7(1)(b).
- ☐ 3. Personal Information – Information which, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless the disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information. FOIA Sec. 7(1)(c).
- ☐ 4. Records in the possession of any public body created in the course of administrative enforcement proceedings, and any law enforcement or correctional agency for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that disclosure would:
- A. Interfere with pending or actually and reasonably contemplated law enforcement proceedings conducted by any law enforcement agency that is the recipient of the request. FOIA 7(1)(d)(i)
 - B. Interfere with pending administrative enforcement proceedings conducted by any public body agency that is the recipient of the request. FOIA 7(1)(d)(ii)
 - C. Deprive a person of a fair trial or an impartial hearing. FOIA 7(1)(d)(iii)
 - D. Unavoidably disclose the identity of a confidential source of confidential information furnished only by the confidential source, or persons who file complaints with or provide information to administrative, investigative law enforcement of penal agencies; except that the identities of witnesses to traffic accidents, traffic accident reports, and rescue reports shall be provided by agencies of local government, except when disclosure would interfere with an active criminal investigation conducted by the agency that is the recipient of the request. FOIA 7(1)(d)(iv)
 - E. Disclose unique or specialized investigative techniques other than those generally used and known. FOIA 7(1)(d)(v)
 - F. Endanger the life or physical safety of law enforcement personnel or any other person. FOIA 7(1)(d)(vi)
 - G. Obstruct an ongoing criminal investigation by the agency that is the recipient of the request. FOIA 7(1)(d)(vii)
- ☐ 5. Communications between a public body and an attorney or auditor representing the public body that would not be subject to discovery in litigation, and materials prepared or compiled by or for a public body in anticipation of a criminal, civil or administrative proceeding upon the request of an attorney advising the public body, and materials prepared or compiled with respect to internal audits of public bodies. FOIA 7(1)(m)
- ☐ 6. Requests calling for all records falling within a category shall be complied with unless compliance with the request would be unduly burdensome for the public body and there is no way to narrow the request, and burden on the public body outweighs the public interest in the information. FOIA Section 3(g)

- ☐ 7. Records of law enforcement officers concerning all minors are not open to the public. 705 ILCS 405/5-905 (5)
